

Join Ireland's Philanthropy Community

Join Philanthropy Ireland's vibrant community as an Associate members and be a valuable contributor to shaping the future of philanthropy. Joining Philanthropy Ireland as provides access to a range of benefits such as expertise, training events, membership hub, and the opportunity for peer-to-peer collaboration. By becoming an Associate Member of Philanthropy Ireland, you can contribute to positive change in the Irish philanthropic community, connect with like-minded individuals and organisations, and stay informed about the latest trends in philanthropy. Together, let's drive impact, create a sustainable future, and be part of a dynamic philanthropy network in Ireland.

Who can become an Associate Member?

Associate Membership is open to any organisation or individual who do not meet full membership criteria of a being actively involved in philanthropic giving, grant making or infrastructure but work in related or similar fields of interest to that of full members which support the advancement of philanthropic giving in Ireland.

Examples of Associate members could include:

Wealth Advisors | Philanthropy Advisors | Financial Advisors | Legal Advisors | Public Sector Grant Makers | Academia | Researchers

Benefits of joining Philanthropy Ireland as an Associate Member include:

- Access to expertise, knowledge and insights on philanthropy practice nationally and internationally.
- Contributing to a collective and supportive voice to advance philanthropy.
- A trusted forum to connect, convene and engage on philanthropy.
- Collaboration and partnership opportunities with trusted relationships.
- Information and knowledge sharing to deepen understanding and transparency in philanthropy.

What do Associate Members receive by joining Philanthropy Ireland?

- Access to up to six Philanthropy in Practice sessions per year.
- Exclusive Membership bi-monthly Newsletter, with knowledge sharing, events, offers and information that can only be accessed by joining our community.
- Access to our Membership Hub which provides an extensive resource library, along with live map of philanthropy in Ireland and event listings.
- Access to our annual Philanthropy Symposium and 50% discount on tickets.

Criteria for Membership

The Board of Philanthropy Ireland determines the criteria for eligibility for membership. To be eligible to apply for membership of Philanthropy Ireland, the following criteria must be met:

- Applicants engage with or support Philanthropy Ireland mission, but do not meet the criteria for full membership.
- Grant-making or social financing is not the core focus of their overall activities.
- Applicants work in related, supportive, or otherwise similar fields to that of Philanthropy Ireland or of its Full Members
- Applicants commit to upholding the highest levels of accountability, including in relation to governance, financial management, and transparency.

Associate members have access to a range of Philanthropy Ireland benefits as outlined above but do not:

- Have voting rights on issues such as Board Directors, constitutional changes etc.
- Have access to grant making network meetings, including open call, thematic or other meetings determined to be of specific interest to grant makers only.

Membership application process:

1. Applicants wishing to apply for membership of Philanthropy Ireland shall:
2. Complete a short application form as provided by Philanthropy Ireland.
3. Membership suitability will be determined by Philanthropy Ireland.
4. Outcome of assessment of suitability will be conveyed to the applicant within two working weeks. If deemed suitable, we will proceed to step 4. If unsuccessful we will notify the applicant without any obligation to assign a reason therefor.
5. A membership brochure and Codes of Conduct will be forwarded to the applicant, along with an outline of our onboarding process.

Next steps:

Email Hazel at hazel@philanthropy.ie for further information or if you wish to pursue membership.

Why do our over 50 members continue to be part of the Philanthropy Ireland Community?

To be at the leading edge of thinking on philanthropy trends, to be part of promoting philanthropy advocacy and to influence budget submissions and national policy.

" find the membership really useful for networking, advocacy and information sharing.

I believe it's an important part of the mission to raise profile and awareness of philanthropy in Ireland.

www.philanthropy.ie

@PhilanthropyIreland